6. One Participant may start only on one shift of a given relay.
7. One Participant may only take part in one relay.
8. The relay is registered by the captain of a given relay by creating an account by filling in an application form available at www.lodzmaraton.pl
9. The captain is chosen by the relay team.
10. Each Participant shall be registered for the Run by the Captain of the Relay either electronically by filling the entry form available on the website www.lodzmaraton.pl by September 14, 2020 or in person in the Run Event Office in the days of September 18 and September 19, 2020 (provided the registration limit is not met by September 14, 2020), as well as pay the participation fee in accordance with the price list referred to in points. VI(5) of this Regulation.
11. The condition for the admission of the relay to the Race is the submission by the Captain of the relay to the Race Office of the Race signed by each relay participant of an individual application form of the relay participant. Individual application forms for the Participants of the relay race will be available for download on the account of the Captain of a given relay, referred to in paragraph 8 above, no later than from 1 August 2020.

12. On the day of the Run (September 20, 2020) there will be no registrations. That day the RunEvent Office will only issue numbers and starter packs to previously registered Participants of the Relay, whose participation has been paid for.

13. Participants failing to pay the entry fee, referred to in point VI of these Regulations, results in no allocation of bib number to the Participant and inability to participate in the Run .

14. Only paid Relay (all Participants from a given Relay) with assigned starting numbers have the right to take part in the Race.

15. All the Relay teams taking part in the Race must be verified at the Race office. This verification shall be carried out by the captain of the Relay or by the person authorised in writing by the captain.

16. Bib numbers and starting packages will be issued in the office of the Race. The office of the Race will be located in the Atlas Arena at 7 Bandurskiego Avenue in Łódź and will be open on the following days and hours:

- September 18, 2020 - 1 pm - 8 pm
- September 19, 2020 - 11 am - 9 pm
- 20 September 2020 - 7 am - 3.30 pm - on this day the starting packages will be issued only till 8.30 am.

12. On the day of the Relay, i.e. September 20, 2020 registration to the race will not be possible. Participants will be able to collect starting packages only.

13. The deposit will be open on September 20, 2020 from 7 am to 4 pm in Atlas Arena. Packages not collected by 4 p. m. on the Run day will not be returned to the Participants and the Organizer has the right to dispose of them.

14. In the office of the Run, the captains of the relay will receive starter packages for the whole team including bib numbers, electronic chip batons, safety pins and commemorative T-shirts.

15. If it is not possible to collect the starting packages in person, the captain may authorise a proxy.

16. The condition of collecting the starter packages by the proxy is presentation of the authorization signed by the captain and the photocopy (for inspection only) of the captain's identity document with a photograph, as well as submission of all the documents, mentioned in paragraph 11 above. The content of authorisation will be available on www.lodzmaraton.pl in the tab “documents to download” (“dokumenty do pobrania” tab).

17. Starting packages not collected at the Run Office will not be sent or issued at a later date.

18. The order of the Participant in each change is decided by the Captain of the relay. The data included in the application form can be edited only by the Captain of the relay on-line until August 31, 2020 or in person in the Run Office after reception of the starting package. Only the captain of the team concerned may make changes.

19. In case of the need to change the Participants of the relay, the captain is obliged to report it in accordance with the rules indicated in point 18 above. After receiving the starter package, it will not be possible to change the order of Participants taking part in the relay.

20. During the race, each Participant is obliged to have a bib number pinned horizontally to the front of the shirt (or outdoor clothing). The bib number must be visible during the whole race.

21. The qualification is based on electronic time measurement based on an electronic chip located in the relay baton and in the bib number of each Participant. The Participant of the relay is obliged to run with the baton, hand it over to the next Participant of his/her relay in the marked change zone, and the last Participant of the relay must run the finishing line while holding the baton. A runner who loses the baton or does not carry it to the finish line or to his/her shift zone will not be classified and thus the entire relay will not be classified. In order to be classified on the half-marathon distance (individually), a competitor of the first shift must cross the measuring mat situated at half distance (21 km 97.5 m) and a competitor of the second shift must cross the finish line. There will be control mats on the route of the Run, which will record the occurrence of the participant at a given point. Failure to read the appearance of the Runner at a given point will result in disqualification of the Runner and the entire relay.

22. Under the penalty of disqualification, it is prohibited to cover the bib number in part or in whole, or to modify it.

23. Participants from the first shift set up at the start in separate zones, according to the declared time of completion of the race through the entire relay.

24. Participants of the second shift set up in the indicated shift zone (half marathon distance) on the Run route. The baton must be handed over in the zone. The end of the shift zone will be determined by a measurement mat situated exactly at 21 km and 97.5m of the marathon distance route, i. e. the measurement mat must be run by the Participant of the 1st shift after handing over the baton and the Participant of the 2nd shift after taking over the baton.

25. Participants of particular shifts will have the opportunity to use the transport provided by the Organizer. The buses will be placed near the Atlas Arena and will be appropriately marked for delivery to the target shift zone or back to Atlas Arena.

26. Buses taking Participants to the shift zone will depart from Atlas Arena at 9. 00 a. m. on the Run day, i. e. on 20 September 2020. During this time, Participants of particular shifts are obliged to take their seats in a suitably marked bus. If the Participant is late and therefore does not take a seat on the appropriate bus, the Participant must reach his/her own shift area on their own. After the race, the Buses will bring the competitors from each shift zone to the Atlas Arena. It is forbidden to make changes outside the designated change zones.
27. Participants of the relay race are bound by the time limit of 6 hours 00 minutes, counted from the last competitor of the last zone running out of the route (crossing the starting line). The competitors will be followed by a bus with the inscription CATCH RUNNER TIME LIMIT, which will verify the time limit for the designated kilometers of the route.
28. Additional time limits are: for 10 km: 1 hour 25 minutes, for 20 km: 2 hours 50 minutes, for 30 km: 4 hours 16 minutes, for 35 km: 4 hours 58 minutes, for 40 km: 5 hours 41 minutes.
29. Participants who do not finish their stage of the Run within the specified time limit and are caught up by the time limit bus are obliged to stop the Run and leave the route or reach the finish line by bus with the inscription CATCH RUNNER TIME LIMIT. The Catch Runner Time Limit bus will travel along the route at a speed determining the time limit in kilometres designated for verification of the time limit.
30. Participants remaining on the route of the Run after the indicated time limit do so on their own risk and liability, according to traffic regulations and the Civil Code.
31. Participants of the Run are subject to the provisions of the Polish Athletics Union, available on the website www.pzla.pl and these rules and regulations.
32. The Organizer provides medical service at the start, along the route and at the finish of the race. The Organizer recommends that the Run Participants conduct medical examinations in connection with the intention to participate in the race and not to declare the participation in the Run in case of medical contradictions. Participant declares participation in the Run at his/her own risk and responsibility. The Organizer is not responsible for the consequences of participation in the race of Participants whose health condition constitutes contradictions to participate in the Race. The Organizer does not verify the health condition of the Participants. The health of minors is the responsibility of their parents or legal guardians.
33. Providing the Organiser with a correctly filled in application form and/or consent to the participation of a minor means that the participant/guardian has considered and assessed the nature, scope and degree of risk associated with participation in the Run, including the risk of accidents, the possibility of personal injury and physical injury, including death, as well as material damage and has voluntarily decided to take this risk.
34. When collecting the starter packages for the relay, the captain must show his identity card with a photo, e. g. an identity card or a school/student card.
35. Online entries will be closed on September 14, 2020. After this date will not be the possibility of paying an entry fee online. After closing online applications, fees will be accepted only in cash at the race office on 18 and 19 September 2020 (unless the limit of applications has been exhausted by that time).

36. The organizer reserves the right to terminate the subscriptions earlier in the event the limit of Participants has been exhausted.

37. The organizer does not provide for the possibility of anonymous start.

VI. Starting fees

1. Every relay participating in the Run bears the costs of the entry fee.
2. The start payment should be made by the Captain of the Relay. The payment ought to be made electronically via the "Go to payment" option, available in the application form
3. Starting fees for participants who will register to participate in the Run in the office Race competition on 18-19 September 2020 (in case of availability of seats) will be paid only in cash. There will be no card payment options.
4. As part of the fees for participation in the Run made online via the form application form available via the website www.lodzmaraton.pl, the organizer allows Credit card payments.
5. Starting fee amounts:
 - 1st date - payment made by 31 October 2019 - PLN 90
 - 2nd date - payment made on November 1 - December 31, 2019 - PLN 100
 - 3rd date - payment made on January 1 - February 29, 2020 - PLN 120
 - 4th date - payment made on March 1 - September 14, 2020 - PLN 150
 - 5th date - payment made in the Race's office from 17 to 18 April 2020 - 200 PLN
6. The proof of payment is the appearance of the starting number next to the name of the relay on the list starter on the website www.lodzmaraton.pl.
7. If, after 7 (seven) days, the starting number does not appear, the relay Captain is obliged to contact the Organizer at the following e-mail address:
stowarzyszenie@pelion.eu.
8. The fee paid once is not refundable or transferred to another team or other course organized by the Organizer.
9. The Run participant who wants to receive an invoice for the paid start fee is obliged to give accurate data in the Race Application Form or in the Race Office to issue an invoice. In the absence of providing data to the invoice or providing data incomplete, the invoice will not be issued. The invoice is issued by the Organizer.

10. The Organizer has the right to release chosen Participants from the fee in case of misfortunate events, as well as other Participants of the Run at its own discretion.

VII. Deposits and meals

1. Participants in the Run will receive a deposit bag in the starter packet with a place for entering the starting number, allowing to deposit items in a specially designated place. The bag can only be picked up based on the starting number. In the event of the participant's loss of the starting number, the Organizer is released from responsibility for picking the bag by another person. It is forbidden to leave valuable items and documents in deposit. For leaving them, the Organizer is not responsible.

2. Before the Run participants will have the opportunity to use the dressing room. After the race, participants will have the opportunity to use the changing room, massage and showers.

3. All Participants of the Run receive: the opportunity to use eating points along the route of the Run and a regenerative meal at the finish line.

4. On the Run Day toilets will be available for Runners in the area in front of the Atlas Arena.

VIII. Nutrition points and checkpoints

1. 10 buffet points will be spaced along the 42km 195 m approximately every 4 kilometers starting from the 4th kilometer of the Run.

2. The Organizer does not accept private nutrients from Participants.

3. In the vicinity of each of the eating points there will be a toilet cubicle.

4. Time control checkpoints will be on 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35 and 40 kilometer and half way through the marathon.

5. The service of checkpoints will list the starting numbers of Participants shortening the route.
6. Participants who shorten or change the route will be disqualified.

IX. Classifications and results

1. During the Run the following classifications will be conducted:

- Mix relay classification - men and women
- Men relay classification
- Women relay classification
- Married couples relay classification
- General classification for men and women in half marathon.

2. The classification is based on electronic time measurement based on the electronic chip in the relay baton and in the bib number of each participant. The relay, which loses the baton or does not deliver it to the finish line will not be classified. The 1st and the 2nd participant of the relay who will not cross the measuring line placed in the distance of half of the marathon will not be classified individually on the distance of half marathon. On the route of the Run, there will be control mats that record the appearance of a participant in a given point. No readout of the participant's appearance at a given point may result in disqualification of the participant and the whole relay team.

3. The classification is based on real time (net - counted from crossing the starting line).

4. Individual classification in the distance of half-marathon is based on net real time of each participant, i.e. the runner of the first shift has the time measured from crossing the starting line to crossing the half-marathon line, and the runner of the second shift has the time measured from crossing the half-marathon line to the crossing of the finishing line.

5. In order for a competitor to be classified individually in a half-marathon distance, the relay in which he took part must finish the competition.

6. Unofficial results of the Run will be posted on the website www.sts-timing.pl and www.lodzmaraton.pl directly after Run

7. Protests and complaints will be accepted in writing up to 30 minutes after the end of the Run at the Race event office. Protests and complaints will be considered up to 3 (three) days after the end of the Run. After this date, the results of the Run become official results.

8. The organizer reserves the right to introduce additional classifications by 31 December 2019. Information about the introduction of additional classifications will be posted on the website www.lodzmaraton.pl within the period specified in the previous sentence.

XI. Awards in the Run

1. All Participants who complete the Run receive commemorative medals.
2. Teams that will occupy places I-III in a given classification will receive cups.
3. Cups will be awarded individually in the general classification of the half-marathon for places of 1-10 women and men.

Providing personal data is voluntary, but necessary to register your participation and take part in the Run.

10. Your data will be provided to entities cooperating with the organization of the Event and Run and, if you agree, also to Sponsors and Partners. Current list of Sponsors and Partners is available at www.lodzmaraton.pl. The list will be subject to updates, which you acknowledge when agreeing. Providing the data is voluntary but necessary to achieve the above objectives. You have the right to request access to your personal data, rectification, deletion or processing restrictions as well the right to object to the processing and the right to transfer your data and submit a complaint to the supervisory body - the President of the Office for the Protection of Personal Data. The request to delete your personal data is tantamount to deleting you from the list of Participants of the Run and the lack of possibility to start in the Run.

11. Your personal data will be processed until you appeal by you consent, and then for the period necessary to secure any claims related to data processing.

12. Your personal data will not be processed for automated processing decisions, including profiling.

13. Your personal data will not be provided to any third-party country or international organizations.

14. In matters related to the processing of personal data, please contact us at stowarzyszenie@pelion.eu.
